(2) To review at least annually the Plans in light of the goals and objectives of such Plans, and recommend that the Board amend the Plans or adopt new Plans as the Committee deems appropriate. In reviewing and making recommendations regarding incentive compensation and equity-based compensation plans, the Committee shall consider the results of the most recent stockholder advisory vote on executive compensation.

(3) To administer the Company's Plans subject to the provisions of the Plans.

The Chairperson of the Committee shall deliver to the Board a report setting forth the results of its evaluation, including any recommended amendments to this Charter and any recommended changes to the Company's or the Board's policies or procedures.

VI. INVESTIGATIONS AND STUDIES; OUTSIDE ADVISERS

The Committee may conduct or authorize investigations into or studies of matters within the Committee's scope of responsibilities. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, retain or obtain the advice of a compensation consultant, independent legal counsel or other adviser. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultant, independent legal counsel and other adviser retained by the Committee. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to a compensation consultant, independent legal counsel or any other adviser retained by the Committee.

The Committee is required to conduct the independence assessment outlined below with respect to any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that provides advice to the Committee, other than in-house legal counsel. Specifically, the Committee may select a compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser to the Committee only after taking into consideration the following factors, as well as any other factors identified by the NYSE in its listing standards: (i) the provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; (ii) the amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; (iii) the policies and procedures of the person that employs the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest; (iv) any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser with a member of the Committee; (v) any stock of the Company owned by the compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser; and (vi) any business or personal relationship of the compensation consultant, legal counsel, other adviser or the person employing the adviser with an executive officer of the Company. The foregoing independence assessment shall not (a) preclude the engagement of non-independent compensation consultants, legal counsel or other advisers, or (b) require the Committee to act in accordance with the advice of any compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser or otherwise affect the ability or obligation of the Committee to exercise its own judgment.
